UPCOMING YELLOW HAT SCHEDULE

9/15  Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation (JDRF)
Type I Diabetes is an autoimmune disease that strikes children and adults suddenly, making them insulin dependent for life. My Granddaughter, Sydney, was diagnosed when she was two. She is now seventeen and a senior in high school. In October, “Team Sydney” will take part in JDRF One Walk in Virginia Beach. We are committed to finding a cure for the millions living with Type I Diabetes. I would truly appreciate your support.

FIGHTING CHILDHOOD CANCER, ONE CUP AT A TIME.

St. Paul’s United Methodist Church

8/8/2019
Dear Friends at St. Paul’s United Methodist Church,

Thank you for your support of Alex’s Lemonade Stand Foundation (ALSF) and for making a difference in the lives of children with cancer. Your gift of $382.62 to the End Childhood Cancer Walk/Run will help fund important research projects looking for better treatments and cures for all childhood cancers.

Kids like Audrey are waiting for those cures. Audrey was only 6 years old when she was diagnosed with chronic myeloid leukemia (CML). This form of cancer is rare for children to have, and means that her white blood cell count is too high. She is currently undergoing treatment at Children’s Hospital of Philadelphia (CHOP), bravely enduring blood sticks, bone marrow biopsies, and oral chemotherapy. This is exhausting for Audrey to go through, to the point where she isn’t quite herself. Her family hopes that her special spark returns soon, and her cure is found.

ALSF is hoping to find that cure by funding innovative, promising research projects all over the country. Currently, a research team funded through ALSF’s Crazy 8 Initiative is aiming to create a platform that will match genetic targets with the best quality drugs to help cure kids with hard-to-treat leukemia - kids like Audrey. Every day, ALSF is working to find cures, and can do so because of donors like you.

Thank you for joining the fight against childhood cancer.

Gratefully yours,

Liz & Jay Scott
Alex’s Parents/Co-Executive Directors of Alex’s Lemonade Stand Foundation
St. Paul’s will be participating in the Middletown Goes Purple event at Middletown High School on Saturday, September 28 from 11:00 AM – 3 PM. If you are interested in helping with a shift to oversee the table please sign up in the Narthex and let Ann Newswanger, Tracy Walls-Pulling or Linda Sydnor know.

Sunday, September 15, 2019
Worship at 8:30 and 11 a.m.
Fellowship from 9:30-10:15 a.m.

Scripture: Luke 15:1-10
Synopsis: Luke 15 is a great chapter to bookmark in your mind. It contains three famous lost and found parables, only one of which can also be found in another gospel, the parable of the lost sheep, in Matthew. This Sunday we focus on the first two (the Lost Sheep and the Lost Coin), while skipping the famous Prodigal Son Parable (which the Lectionary moves to the season of Lent).

The theme all of the parables share is of the celebration that attends the restoration of someone or something lost to the flock, collection, or family. In each case, the world seems to revolve around not only restoring the lost – but justifying and explaining the celebration that attends that restoration. Only the final parable hints that not everyone might want to be a part of such a celebration. Which gives us an entirely different definition of what it means to be lost. Not to worry, though, if you find that last sentence calls you out – you have the key to open the door and celebrate!

Dear Saints at St. Paul’s,

I had hoped that a vote last Sunday about whether to offer sanctuary to Marisol and Genesis would settle the matter for us as a congregation. In fact, a 54-53 rejection of this form of mission highlights not only that we are of two minds as a congregation, but that we have more work to do to discover ways to faithfully respond to this invitation, if not in the particular way of offering sanctuary on our property.

For anyone who feels like this one-vote margin settles the matter, I invite you to think about how settled you would feel had the one-vote margin gone the other way. I cannot imagine moving forward based on such a deeply divided issue without further conversation, prayer, and exploration (and said as much at our July 21 forum with the Rev. Bob Coombe from First UMC of Germantown). Neither can I imagine simply dropping the invitation to respond to this particular (a mother and daughter seek asylum) and general (the urgent need for immigration reform our government ignores and exacerbates) crisis as if it never happened. Too many of us would rightly feel silenced and disenfranchised.

Just before we voted, one of our community asked what course we would follow if we rejected this mission invitation. By a single, fateful vote, we have decided not to offer sanctuary to Genesis and Marisol, should they need it, and I will stop advocating for St. Paul’s UMC to help them in this way. I sense, however, that most of us feel called to respond to this mother and her child in some way, if not sanctuary. One member, who argued against providing sanctuary, urged me on Sunday to ask Bishop Johnson if we could help Marisol and Genesis in other ways, when I reported our 54-53 vote. I am encouraged that others share this sentiment.

This week, I felt desolate. On Tuesday morning, I walked through Zoar Church, a nearby abandoned building I thought (in a kind of desperation) we might possibly used to provide sanctuary to Marisol and Genesis. But the roof is in such a state of neglect, the task of repair and restoration would be a form of what one of my early spiritual mentors called pushing the river. In truth, this journey of the past nine weeks has felt a lot like pushing the river, and dancing a foolish, ridiculous dance alone. Yesterday, I called a colleague to report the result of our vote, feeling ashamed and defeated. During our conversation, he told me that he believes his church can offer them sanctuary, and that he would speak with our Bishop about it. I cannot describe the feeling of relief and thanksgiving I felt as we spoke together, and a conversation about the death of a dream became the resurrection of that dream.

Who knows what may happen? I invite you to join me this Sunday after the 11:00 worship to have a conversation about next steps for those of us who feel called to this mission and ministry of immigration reform and response. Perhaps, if this pastor and church I mentioned above do offer sanctuary to Marisol and Genesis, we can partner in ministry with them, helping to fund and build, cook and host. So, while I reluctantly accept our narrow rejection of a particular way of responding to this cry for help, I hope and pray that we will discover, as we walk in the way that leads to life together, other creative ways to respond to their needs as if they were our own.

You shall also love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt. (Deuteronomy 10:19)

…I was a stranger and you welcomed me… (Matthew 25:35)

May the peace of Christ be with us all!

PFLAG Next Meeting Sept 19th @ 6:30 in the fellowship hall at St. Pauls Methodist Church on Main Street in Odessa. PFLAG (Parents and Friends of Gay and Lesbian) is a National organization with 400+ Chapters and 200,000+ Members. Each Chapter is a Support Group for anyone who wishes to be supported or to give support to the LGBTQ Community. (Lesbian Gay Bi-Sexual Transgender Queer) We are a support group, not a therapy group. We provide support by listening carefully, sharing our own stories, and discussing our own problem-solving experiences. We’re sensitive to each person’s stage in the acceptance process. We’re supportive rather than confrontational. This local Chapter offers support for all who wish it in the Central Delaware Region. We are not affiliated with St. Paul’s other than the Church is allowing this Chapter to use the building for our meetings which are the third Thursday of each month from 6:30 to 7:30. Please join us if you would like to be supported or offer support and please spread the word of this to all corners of our Communities. For further information please contact Mark Holden at Mark@maholden.com or call 802-279-8100.

GriefShare will meet weekly in Fellowship Hall beginning THIS Thursday, September 12 and running through December 21 from 10:00 am to 12 pm.

SILVER LAKE SCHOOL NEEDS
We have traditionally supported Silver Lake Elementary in a variety of ways. We will continue to do that this year and maybe add some ways we can support students in our community with a variety of needs. Currently the kids are all getting a snack break every day in an effort to help them focus and keep the blood sugar even!! Of course, the students who need it most are often the ones who do not or cannot bring a snack. Silver Lake administration has asked for large bags or boxes of non-peanut snacks like Cheerios, animal crackers, and goldfish. Other ideas may be small pretzels, cheese balls etc. There will be a regular collection place for this ongoing mission. For now, if you have any of these items to donate please put them in the basket by the table in the Narthex labeled Silver Lake Snacks. Thanks for your support and participation!!
We will continue studying the book of Genesis. We'd love to have more folks join us and learn more about Genesis. The books are only $8.00 and will last for 18 weeks. If you can't make it each and every week, that's no problem. Just “drop-in” whenever you are available.
